

Neuhaus – Jr. Business Controller

TO DO

As Jr. Business Controller, you will play a key role in supporting financial control, performance monitoring, sustainability reporting and business analysis across various departments. You will assist in monthly & yearly closing activities and monitor key performance indicators. This role offers the opportunity to develop within a dynamic and inspiring environment, combining analytical thinking with a hands-on approach. You will report to the Finance & Sustainability Controller.

- Keep a close eye on key performance indicators (KPIs) across chocolate craftsmanship and commercial operations; spotting trends, unlocking insights, and driving continuous improvement.
- Play an active role in monthly and annual closings, by preparing accurate, and insightful reports, reconciliations, and analyses.
- Act as a business partner to teams such as Sales, Procurement, Production Atelier, Supply Chain, and IT; providing analytical insights that drive alignment and results.
- Be part of Neuhaus' sustainability journey; supporting reporting and performance tracking that reflect our long-term ambition for responsible growth.
- Dive into standard cost calculations, uncover insights behind variances between actual and standard costs, and proactively drive efficiency and improvement.
- Continuously challenge and improve the way we report. Surprise us with fresh dashboard ideas; experience with Power BI (and data storytelling) is a strong plus!

TO BE

- You hold a Master's degree in Economics, Finance, Business Administration, or a related field.
- You have 2 to 3 years of experience, ideally gained in audit (Big 4 or equivalent) or a financial controlling role.
- You are analytical, detail-oriented, and structured in your way of working.
- Knowledge of Power BI or similar reporting tools is an advantage.
- You have a strong interest in a production environment, with knowledge or experience in standard costing considered a plus.
- You are curious, proactive, and eager to learn, with a continuous improvement mindset.
- You are fluent in Dutch and/or French, and English.

TO OFFER

At Neuhaus, you will become part of a house of excellence. A brand rooted in Belgian heritage, renowned for craftsmanship, quality, and refinement. In this Finance role where ownership and impact go hand in hand, and where your analytical insights will directly contribute to shaping business decisions.

We offer a competitive salary package with attractive benefits, as well as opportunities for personal and professional growth. You'll work in a dynamic environment where tradition meets innovation, and where passion isn't just found in our pralines, but in everything we do behind the scenes.
